

House Resolution No. 1288

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State educators who admirably help students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners, involved citizens, and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Cindy Magnifico of Lexington, Missouri, has attained considerable distinction as a sixth-grade science teacher in the Lexington R-V School District; and

Whereas, on March 28, 2008, Cindy Magnifico will enhance her already impressive record of achievement when she is honored as the Secondary/Postsecondary Teacher of the Year for Lexington schools at a Teacher Appreciation Night sponsored by the Lexington Lions Club; and

Whereas, in addition to serving as the Director of the Lexington Science Olympiad, Cindy Magnifico is a member of the Community Teachers Association, National Science Teachers Association, and Science Teachers of Missouri organizations; and

Whereas, Cindy Magnifico began teaching in the Lexington school district in 1979, served as an aide from 1993 to 1998, and returned to the classroom as a teacher beginning with the 1998-1999 school year; and

Whereas, Cindy Magnifico is the beloved wife of Pete Magnifico and the loving mother of Christina and Nicholas; and

Whereas, it is fitting and proper that the Missouri House of Representatives should pause in its diverse legislative actions in order to acknowledge milestone events in the lives and careers of such outstanding Missouri educators as Cindy Magnifico:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the well-deserved selection of Cindy Magnifico as the Secondary/Postsecondary Teacher of the Year for Lexington public schools and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes for continued personal and academic success for many more years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for presentation to Cindy Magnifico of Lexington, Missouri.
